LIGHT AND SHADE
Algarve in the 19th Century

When we enter into the atmosphere and character of this epoch, a wonderful 19th Century Mansion recreates the daily domestic, social and working life of that period in brush-strokes of etiquette, education, religion, music and moments of interaction.

Work on the new exhibition at the museum, to be inaugurated on 13th May, is in full progress.

Events in April 2010

Music Hall

Friday | 23 April | 19.30h

This will be your last chance to see the drama and the comedy, hear the music and the songs and thrill at the melodrama that made up the show of 2009.

As well as the show there will be a Sausage & Mash supper (vegetarian option only on request). There will be table service provided by our Burly Pot Men and Buxom Wenches and super raffle prizes with free raffle tickets for anyone in period costume (Victorian/Georgian).

So come, if you missed it before, don't miss out a second time.

If you saw it before, you know you 'll want to see it again. Make that call and reserve your seats.

They won't last long and when they're gone, they're

We proudly present Spanish Sax-Player, Javier Orti together with Experimental Jazz-Lab and a surprise guest, as well.
Javier, presently teaching at the conservatory of Bollullos, is involved in many projects throughout Spain, is considered one of the best Sax-players. Nacho Megina is a teacher who participates in many jazz and flamenco projects just like Renato Madeira. Javier is inspired by great musicians like Parker, Coltrane, Ellington, Miles Davis, Jesus Santandreu and Perico Sambeat.

Portuguese for Foreigners

It's wonderful to be able to live in Portugal and especially in the Algarve where it's (usually) always sunny and warm.

It would also be wonderful to communicate in the Portuguese language; to be able to understand what people are saying and telling us, to read the papers and magazines, adverts and billboards, and generally participate in Portuguese every day life. In order to do this we invite you to join the students of "Português para estrangeiros".

The classes are informal yet practical and can be lots of fun. Come and take part and meet/make new friends as well as discovering the culture and the language of your adopted host country.

Portuguese classes Tuesday Beginners 2, 10-11:30, Beginners 1, 12-13h Conversation Wednesday 10-11:30h
