Alcoutim

Under the umbrella of the exhibition "Algarve from Kingdom to Region", we would like to present some information about these individual participating museums for people to visit.

ALCOUTIM, TERRA DA FRONTEIRA (FRONTIER TOWN)

On the banks of the river Guadiana facing the Spanish town, Sanlucar, the exhibition ponders the ancient relationship between these towns as well as their links with Castro Marim and Vila Real de St. Antonio. All is to be found in the open air in the ancient town centre. An historic trip for you and your summer visitors with info in several languages.

1º Festival of Literature, Algarve

16-19 September

This will take place all over the Algarve from 16-19 Sept.

Languages will be Portuguese, English and German.

Famous writers have been invited to participate in readings and discussions with the public about their works.

The festival also includes concerts, recitals, films and gastronomic interludes in hotels and restaurants, where authors can read from their works in a relaxed atmosphere. If you are a writer, poet or literary editor and feel attracted to these events, you are welcome to contact the organiser, Barbara Fellgiebel, alfacult@gmail.com or visit website www.alfacultura.com or Facebook Lit.ALGARVE.

As a taster to the main event in September the organisers have arranged for author, playwright and lecturer in screen writing, Marc Gee to give a talk about his latest novel 'Autumn Kill' at the Lagoa Convento de S. José on August 2nd. Please book early for this much anticipated event by email at: jennygrainer@sapo.pt
